incident is alleged to have occurred and shall hand over the same to the complainant and the defendant.

12.5 The ICC must inform the defendant in writing about the material particulars of the charges made against him and he should be given a period of 5 days to respond to the charge sheet.

12.6 The ICC shall provide reasonable opportunity to the complainant and the defendant for presenting and defending her/his case.

12.7 Within not more than five working days on the receipt of the first intimation of the inquiry, the complainant and the defendant shall submit, to the Chairperson of the ICC in writing, a list of witnesses, together with their contact details, that she/he desires the ICC to examine.

12.8 The complainant and the defendant shall be responsible for presenting their witnesses before the ICC. However, if the ICC believes that the absence of either of the parties to the disputes is on valid grounds, the ICC shall adjourn that particular meeting of the Committee for a period not exceeding five days.

12.9 The meeting so adjourned shall be conducted thereafter, even if the person concerned fails to appear for the said adjourned meeting without prior intimation/valid ground.

12.10 The ICC may call any person to appear as a witness if it is of the opinion that it shall be in the interest of justice.

12.11 The ICC shall have the power to summon any official papers or documents pertaining to the complaint under inquiry.

12.12 The ICC may consider as relevant any earlier complaints against the defendant. However, the past sexual history of the complainant shall not be probed into as such information shall be deemed irrelevant to a complaint of sexual harassment.

12.13. The ICC shall have the right to summon, as many times as required, the defendant, complainant and/or any witnesses for the purpose of supplementary testimony and/or clarifications.

12.14. The defendant, the complainant, and witnesses shall be intimated at least seventy-two hours in advance in writing of the date, time and venue of the inquiry proceedings.

12.15. The ICC shall have the right to terminate the inquiry proceedings and to give an ex - party decision on the complaint, should the defendant fail, without valid ground, to present himself for three consecutive hearings convened by the ICC.

12.16 The venue of the inquiry should take into consideration the convenience and security of the complainant.

12.17 If the complainant, defendant, or witness desire to appear before the ICC accompanied by one person of their choice, they shall communicate to the Chairperson of the ICC, the name of that person. Such a person shall have only observer status and her/his presence during the proceedings shall be restricted to the testimony of the individual she/he is accompanying.
